

■ Ultragrain.[®] White Flour Appeal. Whole Grain Nutrition.

Ultragrain[®] is the first-ever whole wheat flour to combine the nutritional benefits of whole grains with the processing benefits and finished baked quality of refined flours. ConAgra Mills' revolutionary Ultragrain whole wheat flour offers the best of both worlds—taste and nutrition. By applying our patented milling technology to a proprietary variety of white wheat, we've developed a whole grain flour that preserves the mild flavor, color and texture of refined flour. Ultragrain maintains all the nutritional advantages of whole grain flour: increased phytonutrients, lower starch content and four to five times the level of nutrients—including minerals, B vitamins and fiber—found in refined flour.

For the first time, consumers can enjoy everything from breads to pasta, pizza dough, cookies, crackers and even pastries—all with the benefits of whole grain nutrition.

Ultragrain is included in numerous recent product introductions, including breads, pastas, crackers, cookies, breakfast breads, mixes and many more.
